

International applications

University of Burgundy's (uB) International office manages the majority of international students' applications. If you do not have a French citizenship nor French diploma which gives you access to the study programme you would like to enrol in it is mandatory that you follow a right applying procedure as indicated at the International office website.

But if you belong to one of the groups listed below, you must contact one of the following structures in order to apply.
