Welcome Days for international students

JANUARY 2023

Wednesday 18 January

Guided tour of the Dijon campus

You will discover the most useful places and facilities for your student life - libraries, restaurants, health centre, where to do sport for free, how to get the discount card for cultural events, which student associations are there to help you... It will also allow you to meet other international students.

Meeting at 2pm in front of the Maison de l’étudiant (building 22 on the campus map). A person from the International Office will be waiting for you in front of the building with a small European flag in its hand. The visit will be in French or English or simultaneously in both languages, depending on the language skills of the participants. Duration: about 2 hours.

Thursday 19 January

Information meeting

Learn useful information about studying in France, student life and campus facilities, especially if you were unable to attend the guided tour of the campus.

Meeting at 10am in the conference room (salle des conférences) of the Maison de l'étudiant (building 22 on the campus map). The meeting will be held in French or English or simultaneously in both languages, depending on the language skills of the participants.
Guided tour of the exhibition about scientists

Discover the new University of Burgundy exhibition about the image of researchers from the 19th century to the present day, put in place in the Atheneum university cultural centre (building 23 on the campus map).

The visit of the exhibition will follow the information meeting - you will go to the Atheneum accompanied by the members of the International Office.

Lunch at the Montmuzard university restaurant

Share a meal with other international exchange students and members of the International Office who will explain you how the student restaurants system works.

You will go to the university restaurant accompanied by the International Office members after the exhibition at the Atheneum.

Friday 20 January

Welcome ceremony by the Dijon City Council

Meet other international students, learn more about the city of Dijon, have an aperitif and pick up a welcome kit offered by the City Council.

Meeting at 5pm in the Salle des États located in the Palais des Ducs de Bourgogne on the Place de la Libération in the city centre.

International students' party

Come and have fun, meet other international students, get to know French students, taste local specialities and dance if you wish!

Meeting at 7.30 pm at the Atheneum university cultural centre (building 23 on the campus map).

Saturday 21 January

Guided tour of Dijon

Discover the city centre of Dijon with a guided tour offered by the City of Dijon.

Meeting point at 10.30 am in front of the Tourist Office (11 rue des Forges) in the city centre. The tour will be held in French and English. Approximate duration: 1h30.

All events are open and free for all international students who come on exchange to the University of Burgundy in the 2nd semester and you do not need to register to participate.
Erasmus Student Network (ESN) InsiDijon Welcome month

ESN student association is also here to welcome you on campus and in the city of Dijon. They have prepared a welcome month with various activities that will allow you to meet new people but also to learn a little more about the city of Dijon.

They also organize events for international students throughout the year. Do not hesitate to follow their social networks and become members of the association.
